<sup>E</sup> Down in the valley the valley so low, <sup>B7</sup> 1

If you think I don't love her gotta a foolish idear <sup>E</sup> 3

<sup>E</sup> She wrote me one letter she sent it by mail <sup>B7</sup> 3

She sent it in care of the Washington jail <sup>E</sup> 4

<sup>E</sup> Gonna build me one steeple on the mountain so high <sup>B7</sup> 4

So I can see Millie passin on by <sup>E</sup> 5

<sup>E</sup> She said that she loved me just to give my heart ease <sup>B7</sup> 5

Soon as my back was turned she loved who she pleased <sup>E</sup> 6

She gave me this answer don't knock here no more <sup>E</sup> 7

<sup>E</sup> Sittin in the prison with my back to the wall <sup>B7</sup> 7

Old corn whiskey was the cause of it all <sup>E</sup> 7

<sup>E</sup> The judge said stand up George and dry up your tears <sup>B7</sup> 8

You're sentenced to Raleigh for twenty two years <sup>E</sup> 8

<sup>E</sup> If I had of listened to what mother said <sup>B7</sup> 9

I'd a been there today boys, in her feather bed <sup>E</sup> 9
