

Handsome Molly

G I wish I was in London or some other seaport town D
I'd set my foot on a steamboat and sail the ocean round G

Chorus

G Sailing round the ocean sailing around the sea D
G
I think of handsome Molly wherever she may be

G Her hair was black as a raven's her eyes were bright as coals D
Her teeth shone like lilies out in the morning cold G

Chorus

G Don't you remember Molly when you gave me your right hand D
Said if you ever married that I would be your man G

Chorus

G Saw her in church last Sunday she passed me by D
I could tell her mind was changing by the roving of her eyes G

Chorus

G Now you broke your promise go marry whom you please D
While my poor heart is aching you're lying at your ease G

Chorus
